

GOLDENTimes

MCI (P) 048/01/2014

Jan – Apr 2014

Celebrating Chinese New Year at Lions Home

IN THIS ISSUE!

TEMASEK JUNIOR COLLEGE
'GO GREEN DAY' > pg 10

ANGELINA TAY SCHOOL OF BELLYDANCE > pg 12

 Lions Home
For The Elders
獅子乐龄之家
Affiliated to National Council of Social Service

Chinese New Year Visits

January to February was a busy period for the Lions Clubs, our corporate partners and individual well-wishers, who all brought much joy and happiness to the residents during the Chinese New Year festive period. They came along with different entertainment programmes, catered meals and tea break snacks for the residents. The residents were also very grateful to receive the customary 'ang pow' (red packets) from the generous visitors.

Maven Pte Ltd

10 Jan 2014

LCS Astrid

17 Jan 2014

Nikko Denko (Singapore) Pte Ltd

20 Jan 2014

CHIJ Katong Convent and LCS South

8 Feb 2014

LCS Vanda and LCS Seletar

8 Feb 2014

Centre of New Life Church

8 Feb 2014

LCS Orchid

9 Feb 2014

LCS Shangri-La

9 Feb 2014

LCS Goodwood

15 Feb 2014

Ministry of National Development

6 Feb 2014

Management and staff from the Ministry of National Development visited the residents at Toa Payoh and spent time making simple handicrafts with them. Deputy Secretary (Development) Mr Tay Kim Poh presented a cheque donation of $12,179 to the Home. The Home is very grateful for the continued support from the Ministry.

Singapore Vehicles Traders Association

18 Jan 2014

Volunteers from Singapore Vehicles Traders Association visited and spread the Chinese New Year cheer to the Toa Payoh residents. The Home is very grateful for the Association for spending the time with the residents

Students from various institutions brought with them activities to entertain and spend time with the elderly residents here.

St Hilda's Primary School

28 Jan 2014

ITE East

27 Jan 2014

Republic Polytechnic

17 Apr 2014

NUS Rotaract Club

6 Jan 2014

Temasek Junior College 'Go Green Day'

'Go Green Day' conducted on 18 Jan 2014 is a major annual college event organized by the Leo Club of Temasek Junior College. The event raised a total of $9,621 for Lions Home for the Elders. The Home would like to thank TJC for their continual support to the Home and the hard work put in by all the volunteers.

Sloane Clinic

21 Jan 2014

Volunteers from Sloane Clinic spent their precious time with the residents at Bedok. They delighted the residents with a rendition of old tunes. The residents also tucked into the delicious spread of tea break sponsored by Sloane Clinic.

SingTel

28 Jan 2014

Volunteers from SingTel brought much joy to the residents in Toa Payoh. They entertained the residents with songs and games. To cap off a meaningful afternoon, the volunteers served and shared tea break with the delighted residents.

Wesley Methodist Church

26 Apr 2014

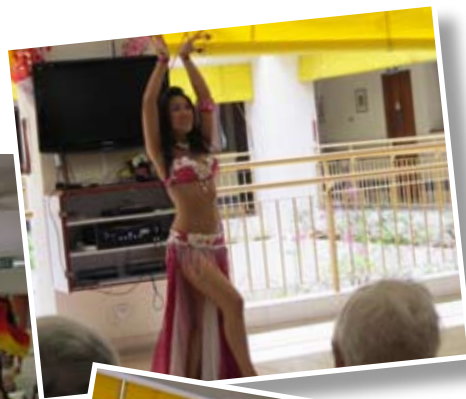

Members from Wesley Methodist Church, led by Mr Jusuf Kam, brought a morning of melodic songs to entertain the Toa Payoh residents. The members also shared homemade Japanese jelly and biscuits with the residents for their morning tea break.

Angelina Tay School of Bellydance

22 Mar 2014

Following their recent visit on Deepavali last year, the beautiful bellydancers from Angelina Tay School of Bellydance were eager to be back to visit the residents at Toa Payoh this year. They came in a larger group with all in full costume for the occasion. The Home is very thankful for the continual support from Ms Angelina Tay and her students.

Editorial Committee: PCC SG Chin, Lion Andy Tan WT, Ms. Doreen Lye and Mr. Michael Lee

The views and opinions expressed in the articles are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the policy and view of Lions Home
The Editorial Committee reserves the right to edit articles due to space constraints